

Consultation

"There is no greater wealth than wisdom, no greater poverty than ignorance; no greater heritage than culture and no greater support than consultation"

Ali ibn Abi Talib 656 - 661

We provide professional support and advice to Local Authorities, Charities, Independent agencies such as IFA's, residential establishments, residential school's as well as independent social workers, police and therapists on a range of child care matters and interventions that include individual and sibling issues such as;

- Therapeutic interventions
- Direct work with children
- Children who have experienced sexual harm
- Children with skewed attachment patterns
- Young people and Children under 12 with harmful sexual behaviours
- Contact
- Sibling and Group Interventions
- Together or apart sibling decision making

We also provide consultations to statutory, independent and charitable residential services on setting up therapeutic services within their agencies.

We provide advice on Court and Statutory interventions, case work planning, developing programmes of intervention, identifying needs and risk management and complex case work decisions.

We also provide clinical governance to help organisations achieve the best outcomes for children that they can.

"You are mistaken if you think we have to lower ourselves to communicate with children. On the contrary, we have to reach up to their feelings, stretch, stand on our tiptoes."

Janusz Korczak 1925
